

The Governing Council of Chi Omega Policy on Human Dignity

WHEREAS, Chi Omega believes that dignity, self-esteem and respect are inalienable rights of each individual; and,

WHEREAS, Within the membership of Chi Omega there is no place for personal degradation; and,

WHEREAS, Each member shares the responsibility of preserving the honor and dignity of members and new members on all occasions; and,

WHEREAS, Chi Omega expects each member and new member to share the belief that:

- every person is important in a civilized society and has something of truth and wisdom to offer; and,
- self-respect, esteem and a respect for others are necessary ingredients for healthy relationships; and,
- sexual harassment is detrimental in building self-respect.

BE IT RESOLVED

That the following statements are adopted and incorporated into the Governing Council's Policy on Human Dignity:

That Chi Omega supports the preservation of human dignity and the promotion of the self-respect of each individual.

That Chi Omega will not tolerate any activity that is destructive, demeaning or abusive to anyone or any group, nor tolerate sexual harassment or personal degradation.

That each member and new member, therefore, is charged with the responsibility of treating all individuals and groups with dignity and respect.

That each member and new member will uphold the honor and dignity of Chi Omega on all occasions.

Revised 10/07